

37th America's Cup: Cantiere del Pardo is Official Supplier of Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli

| LATEST NEWS |

👁 4 |

Cantiere del Pardo is Official Supplier of Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli for the 37th America's Cup: Pardo Yachts and VanDutch Yachts, Cantiere del Pardo will be alongside Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli for the most prestigious and historic sailing event in the world, featuring two yachts: the brand new Loro Piana 72 and the VanDutch 48.

Gigi Servidati, President of Cantiere del Pardo, commented: "We are proud to once again support the Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli team, embracing the most important value of this collaboration: teamwork. Together, we combined our strengths to achieve a common goal, both on and off the racecourse. The Italian spirit, shared with Luna Rossa, embodies an Italy that is admired and victorious."

Our yachts reflect the spirit of Made in Italy—a unique blend of creativity, craftsmanship, and innovation, where attention to detail elevates style, elegance, and performance. For us, this is already a victory: the world will see us standing alongside the Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli team, the Italian dream together."

The flagship of the Pardo Yachts Endurance range is destined for the guests of the Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli team, offering them the opportunity to watch the races from the sea.

This 22-meter yacht, introduced at the Düsseldorf Boat Show in 2023 and recently launched, was presented at the Barcelona Boat Show in the Catalan capital in early August. Born from a concept by Cantiere del Pardo, designed by Loro Piana Yacht Design – who handled the naval architecture – and Burdisso&Capponi Yachts&Design.

the Endurance 72 perfectly aligns with the Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli team's requirements for sustainability, and exclusivity.

The yacht boasts a hull optimized for IPS propulsion systems and an eco-speed system that performance while reducing fuel consumption. Onboard, guests can enjoy spacious and refit both indoors and outdoors, including the fully equipped 27-square-meter flybridge, ideal for races in maximum comfort, free from vibrations and noise.

The VanDutch 48 is also part of the Luna Rossa Prada Pirelli hospitality fleet and has been a Italian team since 2023.

This high-performance luxury tender allows guests on board to experience the adrenaline of in complete safety and comfort. The VanDutch 48, a 14.60-meter luxury vessel, features the sporty lines by Mulder Design and powerful engines (2 x Volvo Penta -D11- 725 HP–Shaft Drive) to over 35 knots. Its dimensions allow easy, safe navigation in any situation, while offering plenty of relaxation on deck and below deck.

Cantiere del Pardo, thanks to this partnership, reaffirming its leadership in design and quality industry.

